

The Daily Courant

Friday, February 24 1746.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 23.

THE R. A. has been so long in Storms in these Seas for some Days past, that they have made many Shipwrecks. This bad Weather has hindered the Departure of the Ships upon which the Regiments of Canada and Wurzel were embarked, to sail to the Coast of the Countries belonging to the House of Austria on the Adriatick Sea, in order to oppose the Designs of the Corsairs of Dalmatino. The opening of the Carnival was made with the usual Cavalcade, but the Viceroy did not assist at it, being obliged to keep his Bed by reason of an indisposition. The Effect of the People is employed in feeding out Meats to prevent a Scarcity, which we are threatened with by the Progress the Mortality among the Cattle has made in most of the Provinces of this Kingdom, especially in Apulia. According to the Informations sent by the Magistrates of the Places, they compute that 20000 Horses, and above 100000 White Cattle, have perished in it, which has very much increased the Price of Provisions.

Rome, Feb. 4. On the 20th past, the Pope gave Audience to his Ministers, and afterwards to the Chevalier Morosini, who gave him an Account of the Measures which the Republick are taking for putting the Forts of Corfu into a State of Security against the Turks. But he let him know, at the same time the Want the Venetians are in of powerful Succours, being that with all the Efforts they are able to make for augmenting their Forces both by Sea and Land, they shall be too weak to resist so powerful an Enemy if they are not assisted elsewhere. The Pope repeated the Assurance he had formerly given them, to contribute all that is in his Power for the Defence of the Republick and all Italy, not only by the Succours of Troops and Ships he has promised, but also by endeavouring to excite the Catholick Princes to enter into the Common Interest of Christendom. The 21st Count Gallatin, the Emperor's Ambassador, who had the Day before received a Courier from Vienna, gave a long Audience of the Pope, after the Congregation of the Holy Office. He treated upon the same Matter, and declared the good Intentions of his Imperial Majesty with respect to the Proposals that have been made for renewing the former League made against the Turks, provided his Holiness grant him certain Favours which may facilitate the Means of executing that Design. With respect to the Legation of Cardinal Urfini, the Ambassador intimated that it was not necessary, and that it was proper to wait the Answer of the Court of Vienna, to whom he had imparted it. On the 21st Cardinal Urfini arrived from Benevento, and a Report was spread that this would be a Consistory on the 23d Instant, wherein he would be declared Legate. That Declaration is deferred, and they have only examined in what Manner the Legation should be made with the least Expence that is possible, as well with respect to the Circumstance of the Time as the religious and exemplary Character that Cardinal Urfini has always preserved. In the mean time he found that the Voyage will cost at least 10000 Crowns, which may be more usefully employed in the Expenses of the War. The same Day Cardinal Pruli had Audience of the Pope upon the Venetian Affairs, and demanded of his Holiness the Tenia upon the Ecclesiastical Preferments in the Dominions of the Republick; and the Ambassador also made the same Proposal to the Pope, who gave them hopes of it. On the 1st of this Month the Ambassador of Portugal had Audience of the Pope, and confirmed to him the Promise the King his Master lately made, of sending some Ships of War into the Venetian Service.

Paris, Feb. 23. Upon the Complaint of the Earl of Stairs, one Laurence Houry, Printer and Bookseller at Paris, has been carried to the Bastille, for having omitted in his Almanack that he has printed to give to the King of Great Britain, to the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Titles that are due to them.

From the Hague Courant, dated Feb. 23.
Hague, Feb. 23. Yesterday arrived here from London the Heer Graevensade, Secretary of the Ambassy of this State to the Court of Great Britain, who brought the concluded Treaty of renewed Alliance, &c. between his Royal Majesty of Great Britain and the Lords the States General of the United Netherlands. This Day the States of Holland resumed their Assembly, and at the same time the Turkish Aga was in Conference with some of their High Mightinesses.

London, February 24.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 23.
Vienna, Feb. 23. Yesterday arrived here from Flanders the Bishop of Ghent, and the other Deputies from the Austrian Netherlands. The Bishop had Audience of the Emperor, and represented to him how much of his Land was lost by the Barrier Treaty: To which his Imperial Majesty answered, that he himself is a much greater Loser. Whence 'tis concluded that he will not think of abating any thing in that Treaty: However, 'tis imagined that they will make great Applications to the Ministers to get their Complaints to be considered. We talk here of an Alliance Offensive and Defensive between the Emperor, Great Britain, and the States of the United Netherlands. Count Gallatin having given out at Rome that he was going to make a Tour to Naples, is come hither incognito, and keeps himself so. He has had a private Audience of the Emperor, and 'tis believed he will go back to Rome, having not laid aside his Character of Ambassador. Cardinal Schonborn is admitted into the Emperor's Privy Council, where he has taken the Oath and his Place accordingly as Member of it. His Eminence will in a short time return to Brunswick in the Quality of the Emperor's Plenipotentiary, to restore the Treaty for a Peace in the North. 'Tis assured that the Tatars made an Inroad into Transylvania, to which is added, that they were driven back, having left behind them many killd and 25 Prisoners. Our Court is inquiring whether this was done by the meer Motion of the Turks, or by the Instigation of Ragotki and Berezeni. 'Tis pretended to be known that Ragotki, Esterhazy, and others excluded out of the Amnety, have several Thousand Men with them upon the Frontiers, but that Berezeni is still in Poland. The Grand Signior having displaced the Hospodar of Wallachia, hath put into his Place the famous Mauro-Cordato, who was Hospodar of Moldavia; and Prince Michael Rakovicza, who was formerly Hospodar of Moldavia, but displaced by the Turks, is now restored and succeeds him.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 28.

Hamburg, Feb. 27. The Swedes give out that their King will speedily set out a Fleet of 25 Sail of Ships of War of the Line.

From the Hague Courant, dated Feb. 28.

Hague, Feb. 27. The Lords the States General have made a Present to the Heer Graevensade, who brought over the concluded Treaty between the King of Great Britain and their High Mightinesses, of a Gold Medal of the Value of an Hundred Ducatoon. The Heer Vander Dussen is gone back to Answer. This Morning the British Minister Mr. Walpole was in Conference with several Lords of the Government.
